The Tom Ellis Athletic Memorial Foundation has assisted Covington Independent Public Schools by supporting district athletic activities, providing scholarships and promoting excellence in education, discipline and sportsmanship. Today, the goal of the foundation is to:

- support the Holmes High School athletic department
- provide funds to assist with the maintenance of and creation athletic facilities
- foster school pride by providing student athletes with facilities necessary to develop their talents

Over the years, the foundation has provided scholarships to students and helped with other educational needs, such as paying for books and school supplies. The foundation has upgraded facilities and also rallied support to purchase rings for the 2009 state championship boys' basketball team. In addition, the foundation provides funds for staff to attend seminars to stay abreast of new developments in the world of fitness and coaching.
